Hi Gloria Ann Altamirano

All Right Simples!
We finely here,
I don't know how
I made it but we did (drunk as ever)
I'm really glad
I met you because you are one of my Best friends.
Shit I'm sudar I never know that crazy, but what I thought that doesn't mean are two totally different days are over HELL NO! There just beginning (I'll be picking you up things. Hey Just because school is ending
I get my car
Gloria (HA!HA!) I'm glad you miss seeing your dimples (they really) mourning + I'm going to miss hearing your stupid saying about Miss John. That boring old ass, but you know I do mean crazy. Same goes for Gloria (HA!HA!) I'm glad you was sure a blast (your Bug). I wish there were all ways to end Mr Fitzroy (your Bug). I wish there were all ways to end arguments because we kicked (don't) your ass (HA!HA!) I hope anyways you know I want to start acting just because school is going to come over. Yah come up + not call or come over. Yah come at my house, Cliff House is your Pause + don't Gloria I know (for sure) I'll never get married (your saf) because I'm glad you had a great time don't forget when I or if I never get married (your saf) to be in it (for sure) Gloria don't forget we still have to go swimming or partying because the summers to come because we can (you) have sites, like to go camping all this summer + rest a places we want to see + I do mean all the sites remember when we went camping all were so cute we seen (coolala). I swear you get closer when we went to the mountains (you) sang every + closer to the mountains (you) sang every scream + shit you sang on the damn Radio song on the damn Radio
Remember you start acting Stuck was teasing me
you keep smiling + showing your

To.
Gloria
Ann, how's (Hi Ann, how's
it going? So it's the end of the year
And beginning of life.
I wish you best in the future.
And go to school. I was glad to meet you, stay crazy and don't Change, And is this BIG enough?
Take care, and god bless
Love always

Dear, =FRIEND=

I'm very glad that we have become friends the best of friends. Because you have help me fill my school years with nothing but good ~~things~~ oops! times! Along with Pauline, Denise, Laura, & Sandy little Nora. I Guess we get along as well is because were both a little nutty and when we together we always raising a muck! Shit remember all those ridiculous things were done? Like scanning at that hard rock party. Mike & you, Steve-O. O-ya! Steve well things been going pretty smooth Louie hasn't found out anything yet but I hope he doesn't either because I really love him alot and don't want to hurt. It's just that I want to have Louie but I want to have my freedom too. But you know how that goes I guess that's why I could always tell you everything because you always relate to what I'm saying (even if it doesn't make sense.)

Looking At Us

Always
Emily Salazar

Imagine. A land populated by joy and sorrow, fun and friends, achievements and dreams. Open your eyes, you were at El Rancho. Whether a friend, whether a goal, whether a memory, El Rancho was the place. Looking at us, you'll have seen the people and places that have changed our lives. If you were here for one, two, or three years, El Rancho has become a part of you. Something more than a football game or pep rally-a general atmosphere of belonging.

A Bird's Eye View

No observer of El Rancho could fail to notice the fads of today on campus. Most Dons were into all sorts of crazes. Some were vogue while others rode high on new wave. Also, the western look was back at the Ranch. But old favorites were still noticable at E.R. KROQ, KMET, KIIS, and KRLA helped to satisfy the various musical tastes.

In the Don world of competition, each class had a special theme. For the Seniors they spent 1980-81 "Coming Out." The Class of '82 didn't take any Ugh jive. And the Sophomores were searching for a pot o' gold at the end of their rainbow. But given the chance (spirits or fads), all three classes went bananas.

To Gloria
A Real Nice person I know for a long time Hope You have a great summer and a great future Get high but not to high!
See Ya

Por El Año . . .

The Dons have supported many activities. From the first day of school to the last El Rancho has encouraged the Student Body to become involved with their school. Starting with the Welcome Assembly, the Student Body was introduced to their leaders and were entertained by the Band, Drill team, and Pepsters. ASB President Romi Vasquez welcomed all three classes to El Rancho and ASB Treasurer Liz Boyce encouraged everyone to buy an ASB card. Then the Pepsters performed a skit showing what other schools get high on. Finally the first class competition yell was held. In the end the Juniors were victorious in their feat. But all classes proved that they're from El Rancho and they couldn't be prouder!

A Year In Focus

El Rancho experienced many changes this year. One change was the tardy policy. This was put into effect to encourage students to get to class on time. Another change was the greater emphasis on academics. Perhaps the most noticable was the shorter lunch period. No longer were students allowed to relax in the quad and enjoy lunch. All pep rallys and lunchtime activities were affected. El Rancho experienced a decrease in voting due to the lunch period. Eventually the faculty and the students adjusted to the schedule.

A Glance In The Right Direction

El Rancho is a high school becoming of age. With it approximately 2,000 students are growing up, too. We are being prepared for the challenges we face in life, without ignoring extracurricular activities. Class competitions, Homecoming, and the two formal dances are some of the activities that make E.R. so special.

Another feature of El Rancho is the increase in academic endeavors. Many students actively participated in such organizations as MESA, CSF, and University Partners club. Students in the International clubs added a little spice and romance to E.R.'s curriculum.

In sports, El Rancho maintained its excellence. Both Water Polo and Football made first-round CIF. The girls also excelled in all facets of the athletic department. Meanwhile the winter athletes were warming up and the spring athletes were thawing out for successful seasons.

The Band, Drill Team, and Pepsters not only inspired school spirit but also competed for awards. El Rancho is a school of many talents.

Eyeballing The Future . . .

1980-81 was a year and a time to change. Things happened, of course, that were bound to affect the world's course. For the Dons, they too changed their world with a new wave of competition. Many fought onto victory while others cheered them on. Also class competitions and pepralleys took on new meanings. Blue Pride swept the campus as participation in all activities increased. Working with traditions of yesterday, and the promise of today, the transition from one decade to another became possible. The El Rancho of the Eighties was beginning to take shape-an identity that will long be remembered in the hearts and minds of every blue and gray-blooded Don.

Administration

In his fourth year as El Rancho's principal, John Sherman has achieved many of his goals. We have a better academic atmosphere, students are attending class on a more regular basis, and there is a good balance in the areas of academic and activities. As a past student at the Ranch, Mr. Sherman has much pride and a strong sense of loyalty to our school. His leadership is by example and we have profited by it.

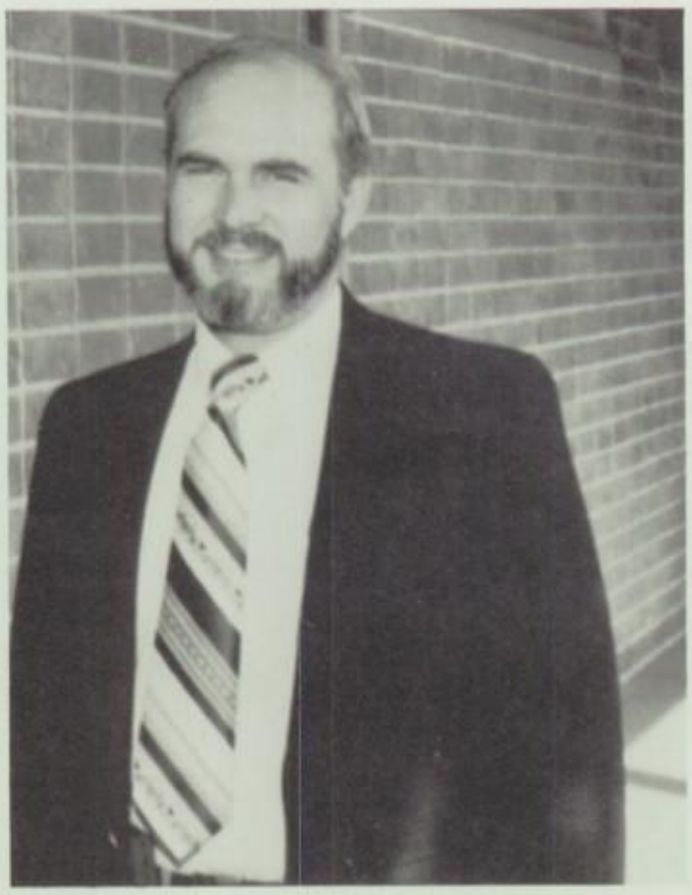
Thomas W. Cunningham. Assistant Principal.
B.S. California State University, M.A. University of Southern California, 14 years at E.R.



Howard Hogan. Assistant Principal, Guidance.
B.A. California State University, 8 years at E.R.

These three gentlemen are all assistant principals. Mr. Cunningham's area is curriculum, Mr. Hogan is responsible for the guidance office and Mr. Petti is in charge of the business and activities office. El Rancho is a great source of pride for these men and they are dedicated to the continued upgrading of our school.

Faculty '81

In order to look differently at our faculty we have chosen to separate them into four classes; the criteria used was the number of years they had taught at El Rancho High School. The "Freshmen" have been here one to six years, the "Sophomores" seven to fourteen years, the "Juniors" fifteen to nineteen years, and the "Seniors" twenty to twenty-eight years.

Included near each person's picture is his/her name, subjects taught, degrees held and where they were obtained, and the number of years at El Rancho.

Anna G. Hunt. Junior and Sophomore English.
B.A. and M.A. at Whittier College, 2 years at E.R.

Freshmen

Let us being with the Freshmen. These brave souls have been at our High School from one to six years. They breath a sigh of relief when their teaching assignments are in one room only because their knowledge of the geography of this campus is slight. They are in awe of the upper classmen and look to them for advice. With their freshness and new ideas these people help to keep our school alive and moving forward.

Sophomores

This Sophomore class consisted of thirty-nine faculty members whose number of years spent at El Rancho range from seven to fourteen. Now that they're no longer considered Freshmen, these Sophomores are beginning to feel more at home. They no longer get lost while walking through the campus. They know where they are and are finally planting their roots into El Rancho soil. The Sophomores respect their upper classmen and often look to the Juniors and Seniors for help and guidance.

They've become aquainted with El Rancho, its customs, and its friendly atmosphere and the want to contribute to its traditions.

Juniors

The Juniors of our faculty have been around long enough to know the ropes. These are the people who don't believe your little brother ate your homework or that you missed the bus and it took you three hours to walk to school. They have also figured it is no mere coincidence that all your absences are on test days.

While they have not quite reached the Senior status these people are professionals who take pride in their chosen vocation, and have a stake in the betterment of El Rancho.

Seniors

These seven Seniors have been on the staff for twenty-one to twenty-eight years. Jim Kane piloted the team teaching program here at the Ranch in 1962. Ray Ogas has been an active participant in our tennis program for twenty years. Much of the modern wood shop equipment and the construction of the new industrial arts building came about due to the persistence of Ed Tarsala. Harry Veale has been president of the faculty club and very proficient in the area of agriculture and psychology. Janet Banks has been department chairman of girls' physical education and Girls' League advisor. The Coed Capers show for which she is responsible is one of the best organized activities on this campus. Barbara Hagler and Joe Osterman have been with the Ranch since 1952. As athletic director, varsity basketball and golf coach and a well informed history teacher, Joe Osterman has been a participant in the working of our school from its embyronic stage until the present. As girls' physical education department chairman, Drill Team advisor, and girls' dean, Barbara Hagler has played an important roll in the maturation of this high school. When others choose to emulate, Bobbie Hagler is the person to whom they look.

We salute these caretakers of El Rancho. They have overseen the academic and activity areas, and ours is a better school because of these Seniors. May their graduation not be too close at hand.

As we prepare to leave El Rancho and look ahead to graduation, college, work or whatever lies ahead in the future, we can also look back at our past years at El Rancho and be proud of our achievements and success. Much time and effort was put into our work. That alone is an achievement. The Class of 81 has always been a proud class and a class that has strived to be the very best.

Let us not forget the class motto, "We're comin' out, we want the world to know, we've got to let it show." We're comin' out signifies our achievements and what we have learned and we are now coming out to face what lies ahead.

We want the world to know that we are proud to be from El Rancho and now we've got to let all of our skills and talents show whether it be in college, work, or marriage.

Being senior class president has been a rewarding experience for me. I have matured and have learned how to stand on my own two feet. I have also learned not to leave a job unfinished but to always get the job done.

I'm proud to represent the Class of 81.

Sincerely,
Lisa Perez

Up And Over

The 1980 girls varsity volleyball team began a new season with the help of a talented coach, Mrs. Barbara Jones. Being her first year, coach Jones showed the girls a new system of play and how to adapt different strategy skills. Even as the girls started late in the season they never lost their enthusiasm and team spirit. According to coach Jones the team improved greatly since the start of the season and everyone was given a chance as team captain. The girls put in many hours of hard work after school and sometimes even on Saturday mornings. This helped the girls to prepare themselves for their opposing teams. At the end of the season coach Jones stated that it was a hard working and great spirited team.

Making an effort to block the oncoming ball are Regina Alvarez and Yolie Gomez.

Volleyball (Bottom) L-R: Arminda Ayala, Deanna Moreno, (Middle) Susan Casillas, Regina Alvarez, Kim Bush, (Top) Cindy Medina, Yolie Gomez, Lori Candelaria, Karen Gutierrez.

Regina Alvarez, Yolie Gomez, and Mindy Ayala look on as Lori Candalaria approaches the ball.

Returning a hit is Cindy Medina as Lori Candalaria is there to assist ber.

With great determination Kim Bush attempts to save the ball.

Off the floor Regina Alvarez returns the serve with a great bump.

Keep Your Eye On The Ball

The JV Volleyball team was a young one. When the season started, the girls took a while to get accustomed to a new defense and offense. But they proved themselves to be a well organized and capable team. Leading the team were setters Gina Aguirre and Marie Saldibar as they brought the team to a record of 6-4. Coach Terry Reyna, who's team consisted of 9 sophomores and 2 juniors, has taught her team the true meaning of sportsmanship and ability. This is her second year at the Ranch. Coach Reyna comments: "The girls have improved greatly and I'm looking forward to a great next year."

Using great effort, Gina Aguirre bumps the ball to the opposing team.

Starting for the JV team is debbie Robledo as she attempts a serve.

Carrie Gomez shows what it takes to spike the ball.

Captain Denise Gonzales is tired but sprints to the finish line.

Rounding the bend is Virginia Gonzales.

To Gloria, I'm glad we became friends this year. We had alot of fun this year. Have a great Summer
Love ya Lori Travis

On The Run

With a Boys' squad of only 2 returning lettermen, El Rancho has the biggest team in many years. This proved to be both trying and encouraging. Lack of experience hurt their record, but only one varsity runner, Mark Gagliano, will be lost at graduation. He, along with John Salas led the team and were among the top runners in the league. With a large J.V. team to fill in, the outlook was bright.

The most competitive team, however, was the girls track team. From a team of only a few girls returning to one of the top teams in the league in one year was an outstanding feat. The girls were led by the only returning letterman, Debbie Loo, who proved to be one of the league's best as a junior. Another junior, Denise Gonzales and seniors Virginia Gonzales and Mary Mireles also proved their abilities. A strong group of sophomores, Deanne Unzicker, Cheryl Sepulveda, Maria Garcia, and Maria Rivera will be ever stronger in the future. Two more juniors, Lisa Carasco, and Nancy Campos will again make next year's team - perhaps the best ever at the Ranch.

Captain Phil Orozco is near the lead with a mile to go.

Nearing the finish line are Dan Aguirre and Dane Estrada.

Rounding the fence are Kenny Ramos and Eddie Gomez.

With Scott Low in the lead, others try to catch up to him.

Captains John Salas and Mark Gagliano try to beat out a Paramount runner.

At the sound of the gun, El Rancho easily gets ahead.

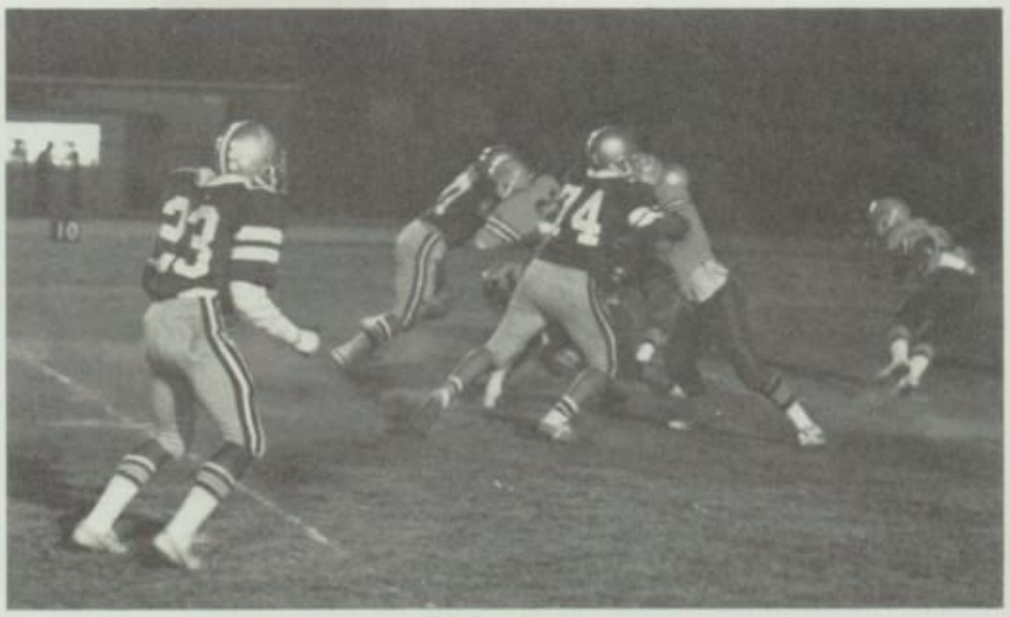
Varsity Football Is Second In League

Coach Don Peterson looks on as the Don offense attempts a touchdown.



Working hard on Defense is Bob Salazar (#23), John Medina (#74) and Ishmael Gonzales (#77) as they stop the Gahr Offense from gaining yardage.

With high spirits and the determination to win, the Dons run out to the field ready to make it another victory for the Dons.

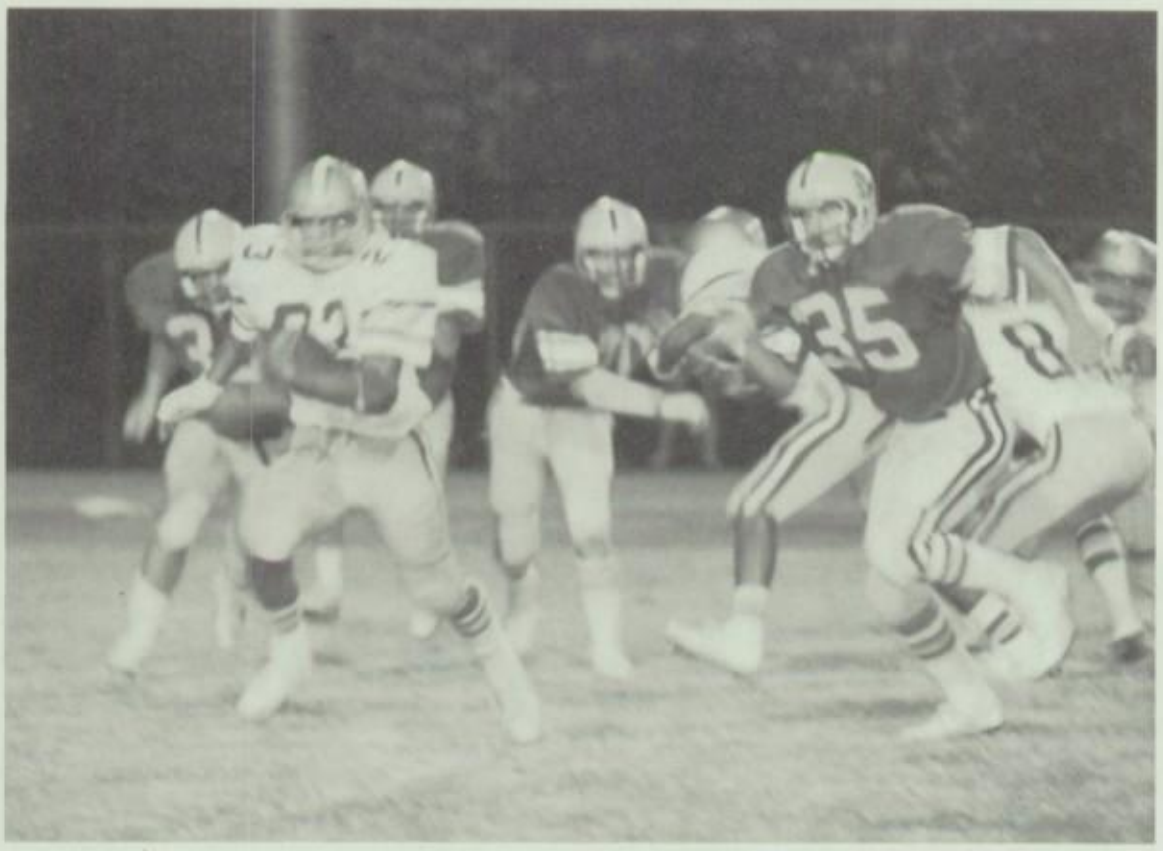
Recieving a 35 yard pass is Kiki Rodriguez as he scores for the Dons to make it 27-14 El Rancho.

A change of play is what coaches Forge and Hartman hope to get across to the Dons.

And Goes CIF

Recovering the ball for the Dons is Henry Gonzales (#89).

After a gain of 10 yards, the Whittier defense is finally able to get Paul Pesquiera (#34) down.



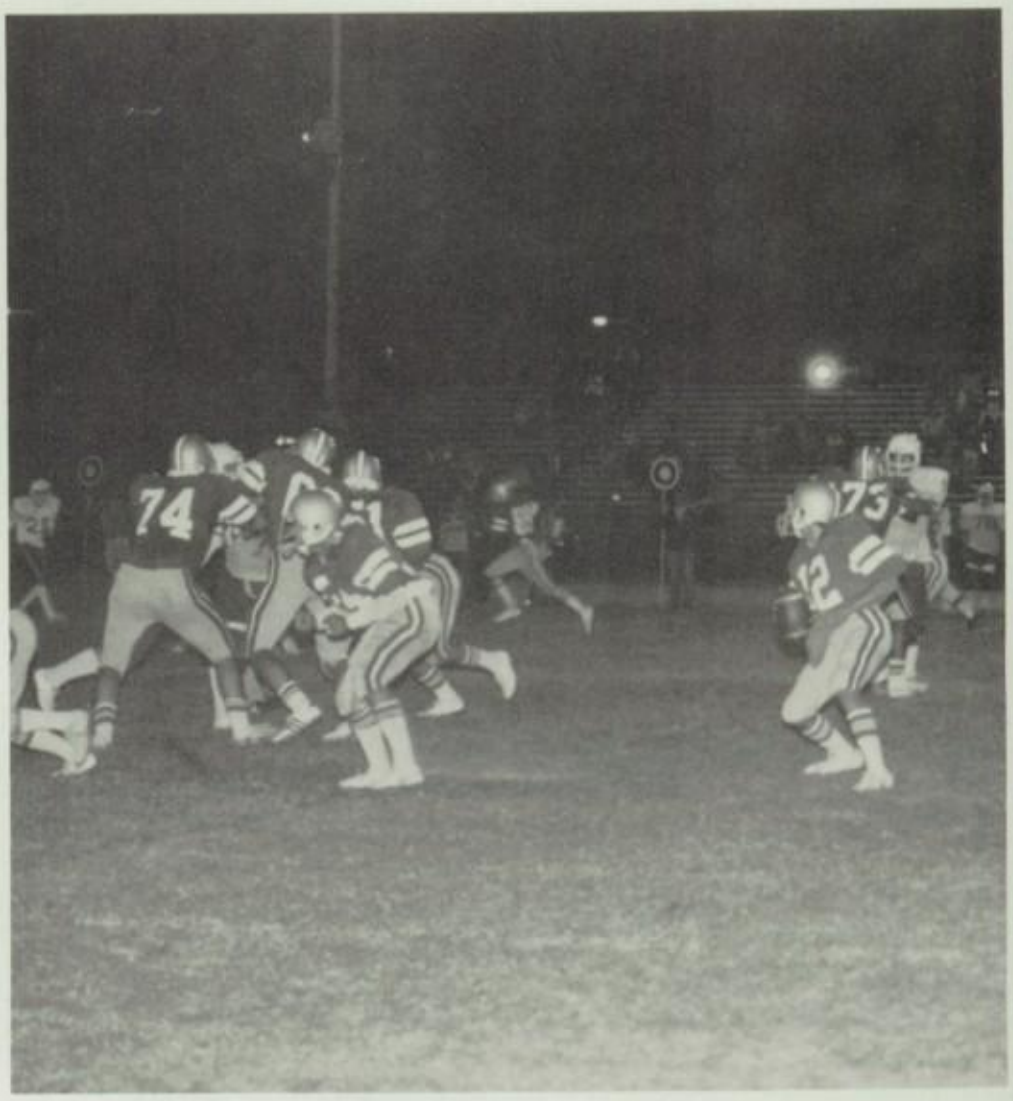
Escaping the Edgewood defense, Bob Salazar (#23) goes for a 20 yard run.

With 5 yards to go, the Don Offense is ready to attempt a first down.

The Dons had a spectacular 1980 season of Varsity Football. Led by co-captains John Medina and Mando Balderama, the team had a record of 8-3 for the season. Coach Don Peterson commented, "We had a good season even though the goals of the team were not reached. There were many exciting games throughout the season and the biggest improvement came from the offense and their ability to score." At the end of the season all of the coaches which were, Don Peterson, Mike Forge, Steve Hartman, Mike Sweeney and Harry Yessian, met to select the All League Team. On offense were: Kiki Rodriguez (wide reciever), Henry Gonzales (tight end, line backer), Paul Pesquiera (full back), Mando Balderama (guard, linebacker), On defense were Henry Gonzales, Andre Holmes (safety, wide-receiver), Tom Dailey (defensive end), Mando Balderama, and Robert Gomez (guard, tackle). The players named to the All Southeast L.A. Times Team were: Henry Gonzales and Rene Chico. The most valuable players were: Rene Chico and Kiki Rodriguez. The most improved player was Tom Daily.

Coach Don Peterson has taken Varsity Football to CIF all five years as head coach.

Preparing him for the next defensive play, Coach Don Peterson explains the strategy to player Mark Reyna (#73).



Searching for an open player is Chris Gutierrez (#12) as he gets ready to make a pass.

Thinking fast and hitting hard is what the Dons defense is proving to Kennedy's offense.

Ready to pass the ball is Rene Chico (#13) as he Spots an open reciever.

Bringing the Dons to the lead is Oscar Rodriguez (#10) as he makes the extra point.

Stopping the Cerritos Dons from gaining yardage is Raul Garza as he brings him back for a 4th down.

The J.V. Football team started the season with a shutout in their first three games. Leading the team were captains John Munoz and Nick Estrada. The team did an outstanding job in defeating every team in the league with an exception of a tie with Gahr. The tie did not stop the team's determination to win. They were awarded the title of League Champs at the end of the season with a record of 9-0-1.

The Dons had a strong offensive and defensive line which helped to hold back the opposing teams. The team made up of Juniors and Sophomores, worked hard together to make it a successful season. Contributing to their success was head coach Nick Caputo and assistants Gracio Farrell, Tom Farrell, and Bill Orozco.

Working hard and getting through some hard times is what brought the J.V. Football team to a victorious season.

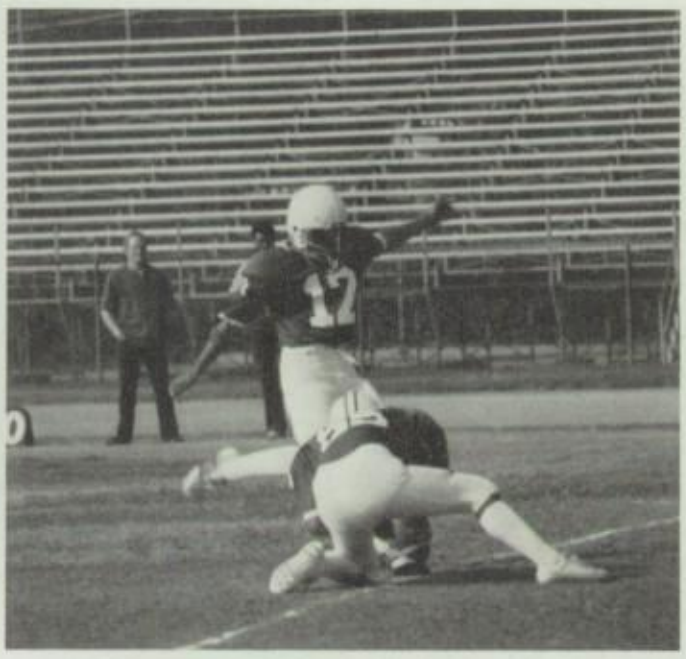
Alberto Gonzalez gets away from the opposing team.

Anthony Corona punts the ball for the extra point to win the game.



Sophomore defense was led throughout the season by linebackers David Flores and Paul Zakhorov and cornerback Alex Dominguez. The offense was led by runningbacks Osvaldo Cantu, Roland Garcia and Eliseo Brito, with center John Lopez. Other strong performances were from Frank Sanchez, Greg Felix, Jesus Lopez, Anthony Corona, Nick Carmona, and Ray Valenzuela.

Although the team ended with an 8-2 record, it put them in second place. Coach David Aguilar Comments, "This team was one of the most talented Sophomore teams in the last 6 years. They have learned quickly and worked really hard although they could have been more aggressive. The players attitutes were really great, and speaking for myself, this group of sophomores were fun to work with. If they can stick together and maintain their discipline, when they are Seniors they will be unbeatable."

If you look at the Varsity Waterpolo this year you may have noticed a well organized and determined team. Captains Vince Cantu and Lionel Neder led the team into a better year than was anticipated. Coach Doug Anderson, with the help of Coaches Jim Dyson and Omar Menchaca, worked hard through the season to bring the team to a 15-6 record.

Despite being a slow team, Coach Anderson commented, "The team did well and had a good attitude throughout the season." When asked who had been the most valuable player of the team, Coach Anderson stated that Vince Cantu and Lionel Neder had been the top two with Bob Moyes close behind. The most improved player was Mario Espinoza who worked hard with the team throughout a successful season. The Dons went CIF but unfortunately lost in the first round of the "3a" playoffs.

Sophomore Waterpolo

This season the Sophomore Waterpolo team played the best ever in the history of El Rancho. After winning the Rowland Consolation Championships, they entered league play. They lost their first league game to the eventual champions, Whittier, 8-7 in overtime.

The Sophomores lost their last two games to Warren and La Serna playing with one less player because of illness of some players.

The team record was 12-6 overall for the season and 4-3 in the league.

Varsity Tennis entered it's fourth season in the San Gabriel Valley League. The team was coached by Mrs. Pilar Oblenis. The most outstanding player was Diane Enriquez. Coach Oblenis commented: "The team improved and worked well as a whole." The team finished with a 4-5 season record.

The J.V. Tennis team showed great determination to win. Coached by Mr. Ray Ogas, the team tied for third place in the league. Downey, Gahr, and Warren were their toughest teams. They defeated Cerritos two times. The most improved players were Patti Samuels and Rosemary Garcia. Coach Ogas commented: "The girls worked hard throughout the season. They came to practice with a good attitude and a lot of cooperation." Assistant Coach Dave Enriguez did a good job with the girls to help them improve.

With great motion, Diane Enriquez makes an outstanding serve.

Finishing off the powerful serve is Denise Tolmachoff.

Having been consistently outmatched in size proved to be a real detriment to the Varsity basketball team. When height is the major element a team must play near perfect basketball in order to remain even with its opponents. Our team has been dedicated and has played with much enthusiasm. Led by captains Larry Lopez and Dan Torres these boys represented El Rancho with much pride. By far the most exciting game of the season was in the second round against Cerritos. Our Dons came alive and performed with a sense of teamwork and precision that was beautiful to observe. We won that game 68 to 67. The team was coached by Joe Osterman.

Looking Good

For the first time in El Rancho history Homecoming was held on October thirty-first, Halloween day. It was an eventful day consisting of an assembly, a parade of floats, a football game, and a dance. During the assembly, Rufino Yuriar, Sophomore President escorted Princess Vivian Millan and Brent Carlson, Junior President escorted Princess Liz Noto. Entertainment for the assembly was provided by the fat people (Leslie Allen, Mike Davis, Mary Delgado, and Sylvia Lieras). The Senior Princesses' were announced at the assembly, too. They were Lori Candalaria, Martina Gonzales, and Corina Limas. The Alumni Queen Lala Espinosa and King Bill Cochran also shared in the festivities. Before the game there was a parade of floats and princesses. The crowd cheered as the first-place Junior float circled the stadium. At halftime Corina Limas magically appeared from a regal box to be crowned Homecoming Queen 1980-81 by Lala Espinosa. The Queen and her court reigned for the rest of the game and the dance. The dance was attended by many students and alumni. Naturally the Dons made it a victory celebration defeating Gahr 28-14.

During the 17th Annual Powder Puff game the Senior and Junior girls were able to take part in a flag football game wearing the standard football equipment-helmets, shoulder pads and jerseys. Ten days of practice was all these girls were allowed. To make matters easier the coaches avoided using technical terms when relating things to the girls, and used everyday words such as "the team with the ball" instead of using "offense". Although some players were better skilled than others, every girl had an opportunity to play. This allowed each girl to experience the fun of being on the field.

This year's Powder Puff game was filled with excitment. The juniors scored early in the first quarter which brought highhopes to their team and a feeling of determination to the seniors. The touchdown by quarterback Joanne Monte put six points on the board for the juniors. That was the score at halftime.

The halftime show included the presentation of the Powder Puff court and performances by both the junior and senior cheerleaders. These performances added fun and laughter as the crowd watched the boys in borrowed uniforms show their cheerleading abilities. The highlight of the halftime show was the announcement of the 1980 Powder Puff king. Mando Balderama was crowned king. Kiki Rodriguez was senior prince and Bill Rubio was named junior prince.

The seniors were determined to score during the second half of the game. In the third quarter senior quarterback Val Parra broke through the line to run for a 75 yard touchdown. Despite efforts by both teams, neither was able to score gain. The final score leaded in a six to six tie.

This event brought people together. Players, coaches and cheerleaders had fun. Senior advisor David Aguilar and junior advisor Mike Goff supervised their teams well. The Powder Puff game, under the direction of Miss Ellis, turned out to be a successful event.

Look Sharp!

This was the key for those attending "An Evening For Us", this years Girls' League dance. For many people, this was their first formal dance. Much excitement filled the air when girls began to gather up their courage to ask that special boy out. That same excitement bubbled inside each and every girl as she began looking for a dress and finding a place to eat. Much time was spent by the Girls' League board members preparing publicity posters, entertainment, and decorations for this special evening. "Best of Friends" provided the music to which the enthused couples danced. This night was one that all who attended will long remember.

Looking For A Star

There were often times when wandering by the K building one would hear the hammering and sawing being done in the drama room, in preperation for the next play. If it wasn't props being made, then there were lines being rehearsed. The plays put on throughout the year involved many people. Many dress rehearsals and practices took place and much time and effort was put into the productions by all who were involved.

This years' first play, "The Miracle Worker", set the Drama department off to a good start. The skills of the performers were remarkable. Many of the actors got over their stage-fright and surprised everyone with their overwhelming performances on stage.

Their next project, "Friends", "An Evening of Improvization", was considered a success by all. This presentation allowed the audience to participate and also showed the fast thinking and creativity of the actors. This unusual show delighted all who attended.

Class Skits

The class competition skits involved many different themes. The Seniors, who won the competition used "Fantasy Island" as their theme. The Juniors held a dating game in which their Junior won over the Sophomore and Senior.

Many different ideas including the Mr. Senior Show were used by the Sophomores. These skits involved many people and everyone enjoyed watching them.

The success of the 28th Annual Coed Capers show proved that hard work and organization does pay off. Many months of practice and rehearsal involved over two hundred girls and produced an excellent show enjoyed by all. There were fourteen dance groups involved in this year's "Toy shop Treasures" show. Ribbons were awarded to the top five groups and also to the Children's Choice and Sportsmanship winners. Miss Janet Banks and Dawn Sheline, student director, worked together to turn out a tremendous show.

We Are Alive

An enthusiastic Junior class came back to El Rancho in the fall. Such enthusiasm included standing ovations for their president Brent Carlson and winning the first competition yell at the Welcome Assembly. Whenever there was a chance to show school spirit, the Class of '82 never backed away. They rode high and mighty in hopes of being Class of the Year.

During Homecoming, the Juniors continued to participate in all the activities. After winning the float competition, the Juniors became a serious threat to the Seniors and Sophomores. From then on it was a unified class that proved "they were alive!"

The Class of '82 awaits the start of a pep rally.

A Successful Class

As Juniors, this class was in the position to prove themselves better than both the Seniors and the Sophomores. Being in the middle was not easy. The Juniors had to be careful not to allow themselves be beaten by the underclassmen. At the same time they had to strive to upset the Seniors and show their capability. The Juniors were successful in maintaining their pride and spirit throughout the year. This was proven by the participation and determination shown by the members of this class. Their positive attitudes and willingness to help were their keys to winning.

President's Address

Being Juniors was not easy, for we were in a year of many transistions. We had made it through our introductory year as sophomores, but were still restricted by our somewhat demeaning title of "Juniors".

Although our name was "Juniors", we were "Seniors" in our activities. Throughout the year we let it be known that we have spirit, a great willingness to work, and above all, unconquerable pride. We proved these qualities time after time in such activities as pep rallies, Homecoming, and our class skit.

We felt it an honor to serve the school in the annual Jr. Sr. Prom and the traditional Powder Puff game. Also, we deeply appreciate all the time and help rendered by our class advisor, Mr. Goff. Through his fine efforts, he has given class advisors a very honorable and respectful name.

We know the class of 82 will be long remembered, for great organizations are not easily forgotten.

Sophs Find Their Way

When the Sophomore class was first introduced to El Rancho they were faced with new surroundings and a very different atmosphere. Adjusting to their giant step into high school took time and led to new experiences.

As Sophomores, they were once again faced with the problem of proving themselves equal to the other classes. There were many new ways for them to accomplish this. Competition pep rallies, float building, and the skit were just some of the activities in which they took part as a class.

New faces were also something that they saw when they entered the school year. No longer were they surrounded by the same people day after day. With each step taken a new face was seen. Along with these new faces came new friends.

Sophomores show they've got pride.

A Time For Change

The first of three years of attending high school is over for this Sophomore class. Being a Sophomore was probably the most difficult time that they may have had in school. Adapting to the change between past schooling and that of El Rancho was a big step for this class.

Becoming involved in school functions helped many Sophomores realize that there was much more to school than just work. Sports allowed these people to compete as individuals and also to work together. Activities brought the class together and added to their fun. Organizations gave them a chance to contribute to their school and receive a feeling of satisfaction.

Throughout the year this class worked hard to build up the pride in themselves as a class and also pride in their school. This pride will be one of the important factors that will carry this class through the next two years.

Homecoming

When Homecoming came around this year it was a totally new event for the Sophomores. The thought of designing and building a class float left them with feelings of both skepticism and determination. It was a big job and they were allowed only two weeks to complete it, but they set their goal of getting it done. The Sophomores knew that it would involve a lot of work and were excited and ready to help. When the two weeks of float building came to an end, the Sophomore class had finished their float. The amount of time and energy spent on this undertaking was immeasurable but by working together as a class they accomplished their goal.

Sophomores Take Charge

When our Sophomore year begun, we were eager to prove our capability. People that were once strangers worked together as a class to strengthen the spirit and pride needed to be successful in accomplishing all that we set out to do.

Although a lot of activities and competitions that took place this year were new to us, we did our best when competing. We learned that by working together and cooperating with each other we could build a strong and unified class that would be determined to win.

Being class president allowed me to experience the importance of leadership. I am thankful that I was able to play such a big part in this class and am thankful to the Sophomore class for the time and effort that was put forth by them throughout the year. I would also like to thank our advisor Mr. David Verdugo for his guidance and advice which we benefited from greatly.

This has been a year full of memories for us all. Thanks for everything.

Look What They've Done To My Song, Ma

Want to march the streets of Garden Grove, Montebello, Baldwin Park, Tustin, Azusa, and points south? Want to spend Friday nights tootin' your horn? Want to make a little music before school, after school, and during 2nd Period? Then join the band. Parades, halftime shows, assemblies, and many fund raising events are the ways band members spend their time. All of these activities require many hours of practice. Dedication is a key word when interviewing prospective band members. Under the direction of Mr. Dov Scharf, this year's group worked hard to maintain the traditional high standards. Mrs. Marina Tamayo was the very competent aide to the band and a special salute goes to Gary Sonora, Drum Major.

Watch Your Step

This year's Drill Team proved themselves to be one of the most involved and active groups on campus. Under the direction of Miss Barbara Hagler and Drill Team Leader Libby Gutierrez, this group of 32 girls participated in many different activities. They were seen performing their half-time routines at every home football game and danced to tunes ranging from "Ease on Down the Road" to "Rocky". The Drill Team also marched in many parades throughout the year and spread their El Rancho pride everywhere they went.

The dedication of the Drill Team to their organization and to El Rancho had a positive effect on many people. They played a big part in promoting school spirit and were always seen in the stands cheering their team on to victory!!

An Eye For News

Newstaff 1980-81 turned out to be a combination of efforts on the part of the editor, advisor, and writers, all of these people spent much of their time in producing the school paper. At the beginning of the school year there were many problems that arose because of inexperiencod staff, and only one returning editor. However as the year went on, the El Rodeo progressed. learning how to use the Headliner Machine. and Printing Machine was very challenging. Were it not for the dedication and hard work that the students put in, the newspaper would be totally impossible. No matter how easy it looks, there is alot more that meets the eye, as anyone on the newstaff will agree. After the trials and improvments during the past year, it can be said honestly that next year seems to be more gratifying then the ones in the past.

A Sight For Sore Eyes

All you have to do is sell candy apples, sell homecoming ribbons and attend at least three sign paintings. Then you, too, can be a member of the most active commission on campus. The Pep Commission chooses the Homecoming theme, strings cards for football season and paints signs for all of the sports. Approximately twenty signs per week are painted by these industrious people. These signs adorn the walls of the B building and the gym during the school days. At night during the football season they were seen all over the stadium. Pep Rallies were more spirited because of the colorful signs. Many thanks go to these dedicated painters. They made our school a little brighter.

Looking Ahead

University Partners are students who are actively pursuing their college potentials. They participate in college tours and college summer resident programs. Dr. Hayes, the college counselor, was the advisor of this group.

The California Scholastic Federation is a state wide organization for high school students. One earns the right to be a member of this group by recieving ten or more grade points in at least four academic subjects during a semester. Freak-Out On Fridays

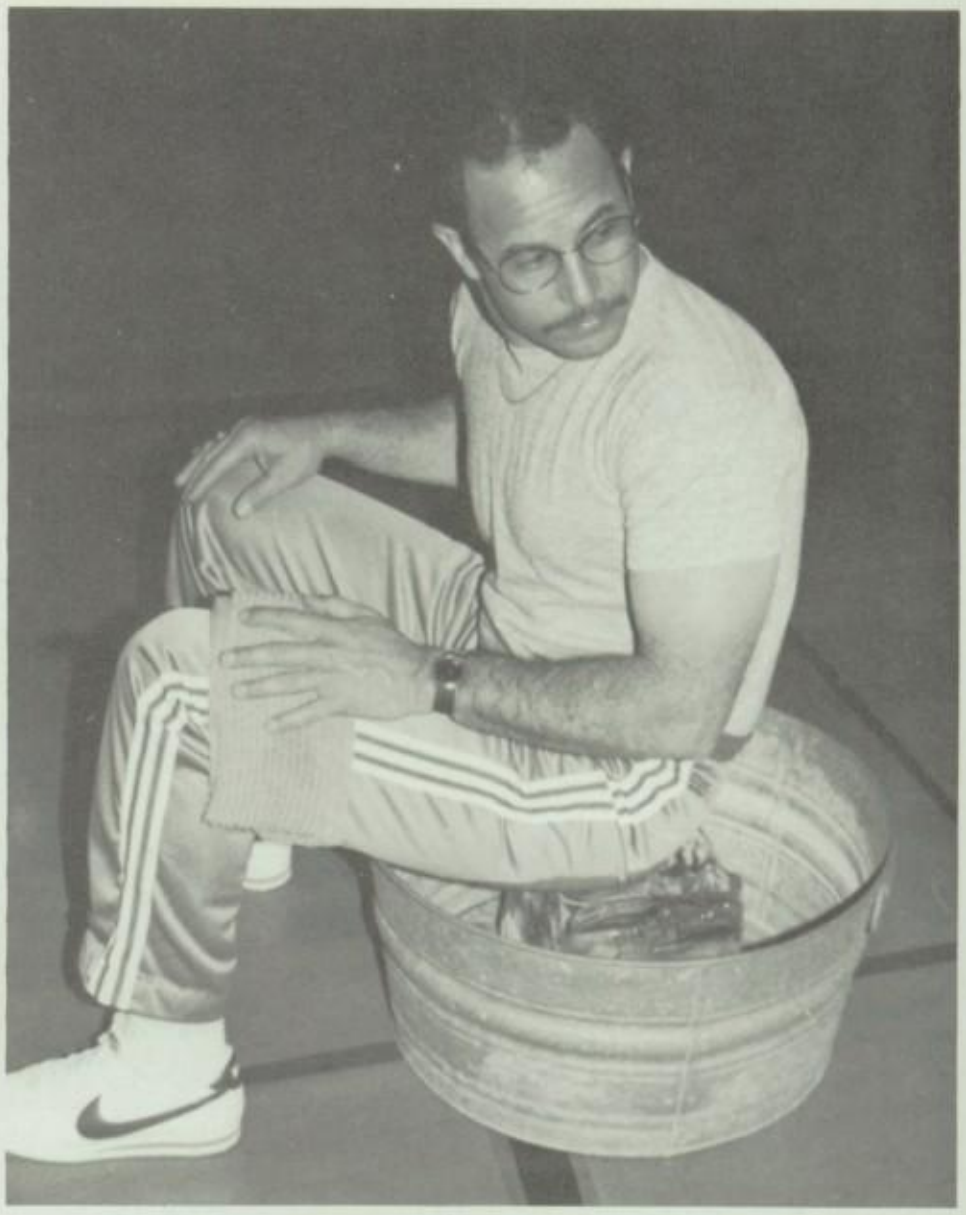
On Friday, February 13th, El Rancho felt it was fitting to have a "Freaky Friday." All were invited to dress up and participate in a funfilled lunchtime assembly. Games such as a pie-eating contest, orange pass and obstacle course entertained the crowd. The costume contest allowed all those who had dressed up to see if their contest was the "freakiest."

Look ma, no hands.



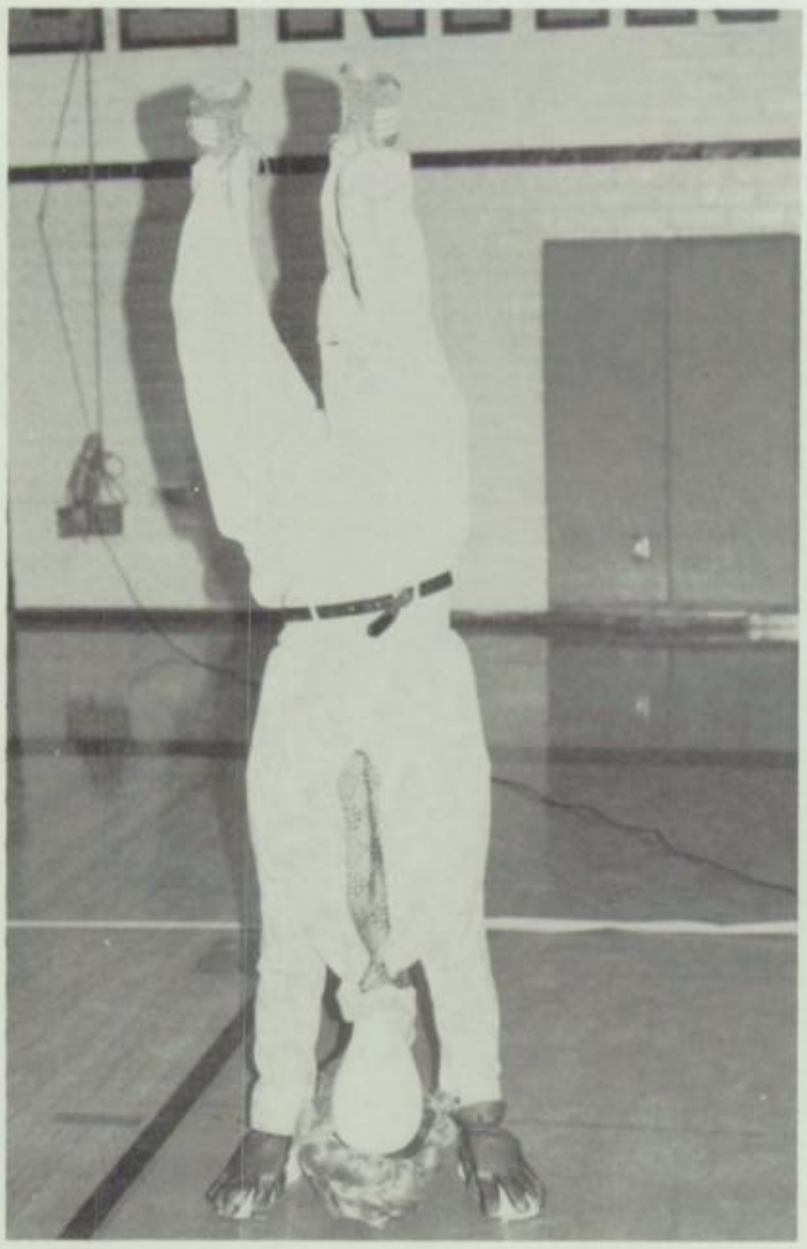
This can cure what ails ya.

Track was never like this.

Want to go to the prom, huh?

What a motley crew.

Oooooh, Popeye.



"It beats ruining my Nike."

Get down baby!

"Don't Look At The Keys!"

El Rancho proudly presents the Future Business Leaders of America. Brought to you by Advisor Judy Matingley. The FBLA participated in many charter activities to improve their business skills. Each member also planned their own carreer and sought their goals. With contemporary equipment and advice the FBLA will serve well.

A View From The House

The House of Represenatives served as the legislative branch of El Rancho's government. Speaker of the House Pam Bounds chaired meetings which were held once a month in the cafeteria. The members of this group were elected by their second period classes. Topics of discussion ranged from the pros and cons of the shortened lunch period to campus security and its effectiveness. The members also had the responsibility of informing their homerooms of the various activities on-our campus.

Eye've Grown Accustomed To Their Faces

There were many changes and noticable differences in the Choral Department this year. Besides the fact that both the Concert Choir and the Choraleers had a change in uniform, the Choraleers also went from strictly a singing group to one that also included choreography. This addition brought variety and liveliness to their performances and added to the character of this group.

Both the Concert Choir and the Choraleers participated in school assemblies and community programs. Many hours were spent by the new Choral advisor, Mrs. Roberts, in training and perfecting the voices of the members. Mr. Francisco, the piano accompanist, also helped by supplementing the musical atmosphere. The Choraleers were considered the most skillful singers in the Choral department. Auditions were held in order to find those who were qualifed for becoming a Choraleer. This group consisted of many talented singers and could always be counted on to put on a good show.

Watch-Out! Their Taking Over!

Twenty-two seniors were selected to take part in Youth in Government. They were responsible for taking over the city for a day which included holding a mock city council meeting. Much research was done in order to find ways to improve problem areas in the city and propose new ideas that could benefit Pico Rivera. Mr. Steve Kennedy, the advisor of this activity, organized the elections and helped the students greatly. The group also visited the state capitol to learn about government and its functions.

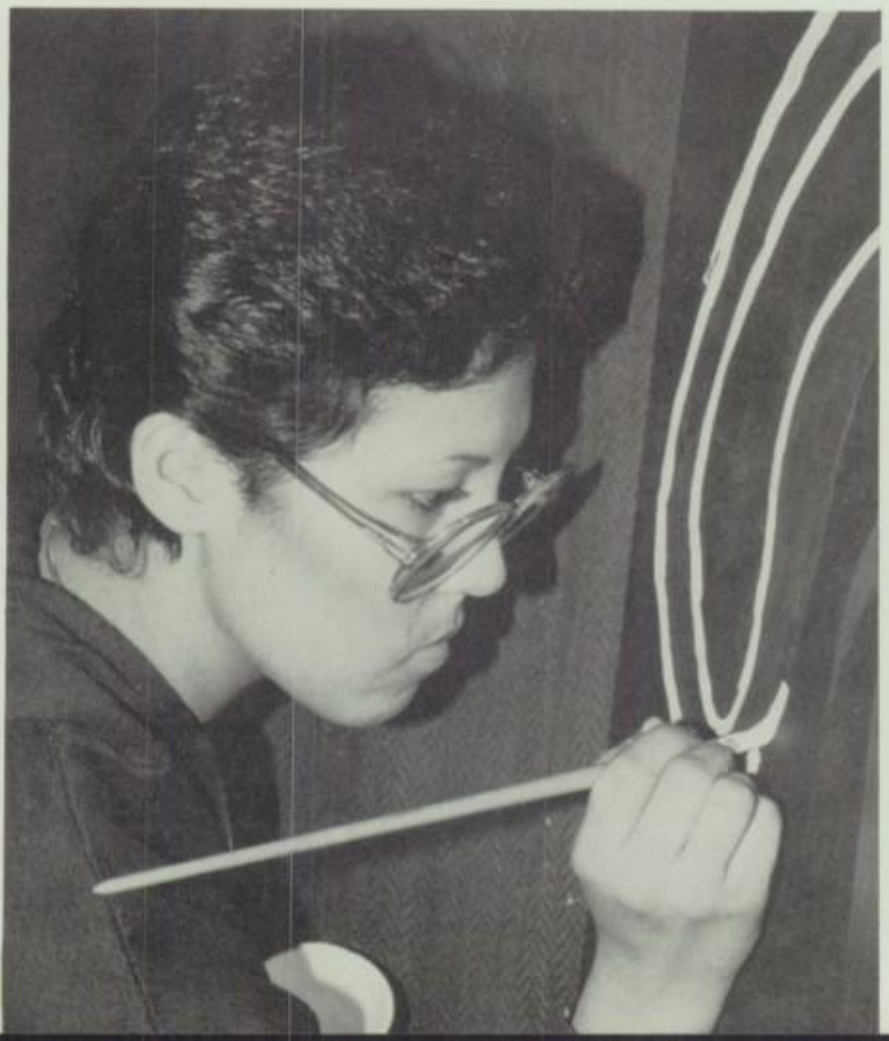
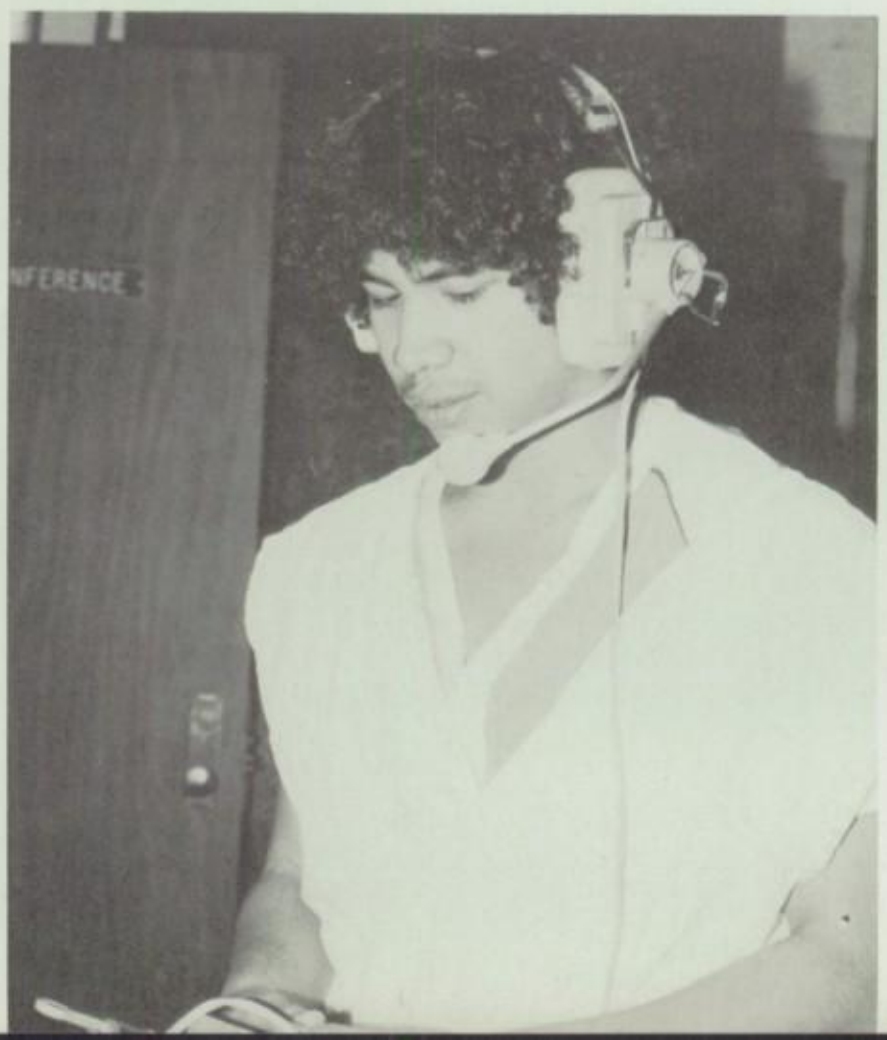
A Look Behind The Scenes

The drama club promotes the performing arts on campus through performances given at the El Rancho Little Theatre. Members also enrich their knowledge in the field of entertainment by attending professional shows, touring television and motion picture studios adn performing in high school drama festivals. A good drama club member has a strong scholastic background, a disire to perform and is essentially a "wild and crazy" person.





Just Look At Those Girls!

The Girls' League officers were responsible for many activities that took place throughout the year. Meetings were held every two weeks in order to plan and organize activities ranging from assemblies to electing "Belle of the Month". Every girl becomes a member of Girls' League as a Sophomore and her membership continues throughout her Senior year.

Some of the events which Girls' League sponsored were considered highlights of the year. The Girls' League formal dance, "An Evening For Us", turned out to be an enjoyable night for all who attended. The "Mother-Daughter Dessert" allowed each girl to invite her mother to spend a night of entertainment with her daughter away from the house. The Doll Contest and the Cotton Day Sewing Contest allowed those who competed to show off their skills. The twenty-eighth annual Coed Capers show involved many girls who put in much time and effort to make the show a tremendous success. Girls' League helped to involve girls in the various events held throughout the year.

A Peek At The Pepsters

When you look at the word "Pepster" you probably picture one of those energetic girls you saw in uniform every Friday at pep rallies, sporting events or walking through school. It may seem to you that being a pepster was just a Friday thing, but actually it was a continuous, week-long duty. Sacrificing their vacations, weekends, and after school hours for practice was not unusual for this group of twenty-four girls. The hard work was in preparation for pep rallies, assemblies and competitions. The pepsters competed in three different competitions throughout the year and took great pride in their routines. The song leaders worked on and improved their dance steps, the flagsters learned how to be experts in twirling, and the yells perfected their movements and voices.

Finding time to do things was often a problem for the pepsters. With practice after school, homework to do, games to attend, organizing their time was important. Often at the end of a long day, dinner and television would be skipped to make more room for a much needed nights' sleep.

Throughout the year the pepsters worked hard to keep up the spirit and pride of El Rancho. Their great attitudes and dedication had a positive effect on all.

The members of Student Council were selected by application and interview. This organization had certain responsibilities such as supervising the football games.

Student Council raised money by having an almond and cornnut sale. The profit was used to hold the annual Christmas Party for Children. This year's party was held at our Daycare Center. The money was used for the Children's Christmas Stocking.

This year the Student Council members were recognized by the attire they proudly wore. The girls wore white velour sweaters and the boys wore navy blue pullover sweaters. Student Council was just one of the helpful organizations on campus.

Out Of Focus

Looking at us, screaming, yelling and complaining was just part of the craziness that went on in this class. But when our master Linda said "work", we worked. Annual Staff was a hard working class (sometimes). There were many things to be done, such as making layouts, writing copy, writing B.S. copy, and meeting the deadlines.

Our wild and crraaazzy advisor, Miss Julie B. Ellis helped us to get in order when we got out of hand (usually every five minutes). But, nevertheless, things got accomplished, and before you knew it, we were looking at us in the 1981 yearbook. Annual Staff did a great job this year!!!

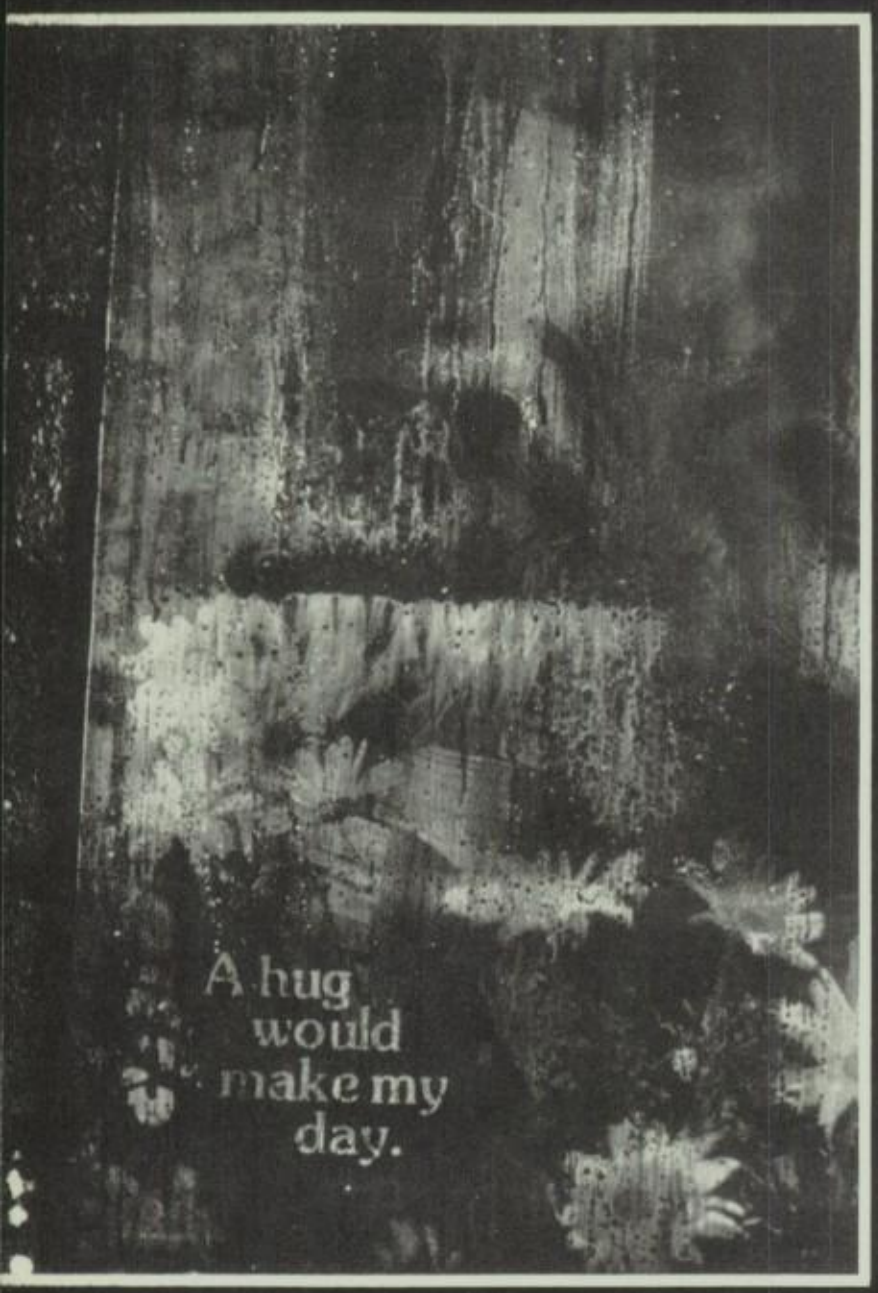
Look Who's Donna-Of-The Year

Well, maybe not in this issue of the Por el Ano because the news of Donna of the year came after our last deadline. Regardless, it was not an easy choice for any girl to make. All these Senior girls at one time were chosen to be Belle of the Month. They were all nominated for being friendly, well-groomed, and maintaining an attitude ep that Ma made Th that epitomized Girl epitomizes Girls' League. Eventually one very special Belle was chosen at the Girls' League installation.



On February 26, 1981 El Rancho awoke to an early morning fire. It was a day when everyone could use a hug.

"It's Showtime, Folks!"

As the years come and go, so do Por el Anos. Trying to make one different or extra special is not very easy. One way I found to achieve a great yearbook was to let art imitate life. This year has brought us more of the human drama than any Hollwood script could provide. Speaking of Hollywood, who else should play the lead but Ronald Reagan? The President and first lady Nancy moved their supporting cast to the capitol for a very extravagant inauguaration, January 20, 1981.

Meanwhile, Iran released the American 52 after 444 days of captivity. In honor of the former hostages their countrymen treated them like heroes. Yellow ribbons were everywhere.

Thus, a new wave of patriotism flooded our land. Time Inc. called it "American Renewal" and did a series of articles in all its magazines. With echoes of the past, our nation moved forward.

Like every year fads were present. It became 'in' to be one of the following: Conservative, cowboy, criminal, preppy, or a member of the Moral Majority. And if anything came between you and your Calvins, it was probably because you weren't armed with Mace. Self-defense became the new recreation, as some people thought gun-control was a steady hand on the trigger.

Unfortunately, the wounds of a gun ended a life and an era. At age 40 former Beatle John Lennon touched us all. As a musician he made us listen to the lyrics, as a peacemaker he made us love each other a little more, and as a husband and father he kept his family a family. His contribution to the world was music, peace, and love. Let it be.

El Rancho also was the victim of a violent crime. Arsonists set fire to both the administrative buildings and the cafeteria. Damage was estimated at $750,000. But the ideals that burn in the hearts and minds of good willed individuals remain after the destruction. El Rancho was built on a foundation of educational excellence that in itself is inflammable.

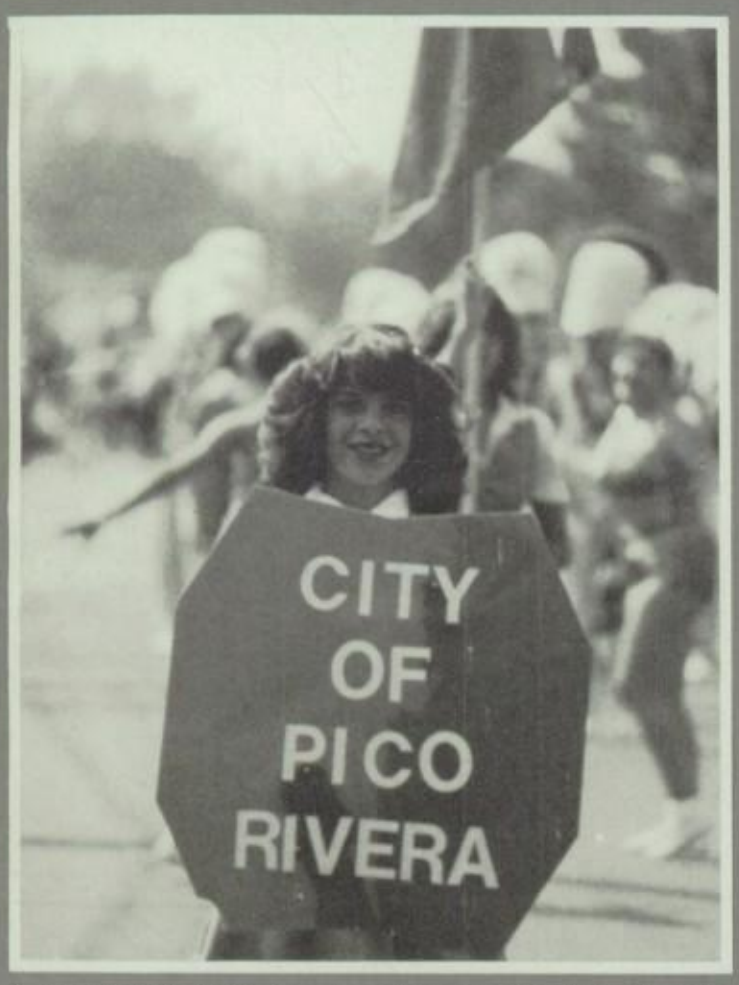
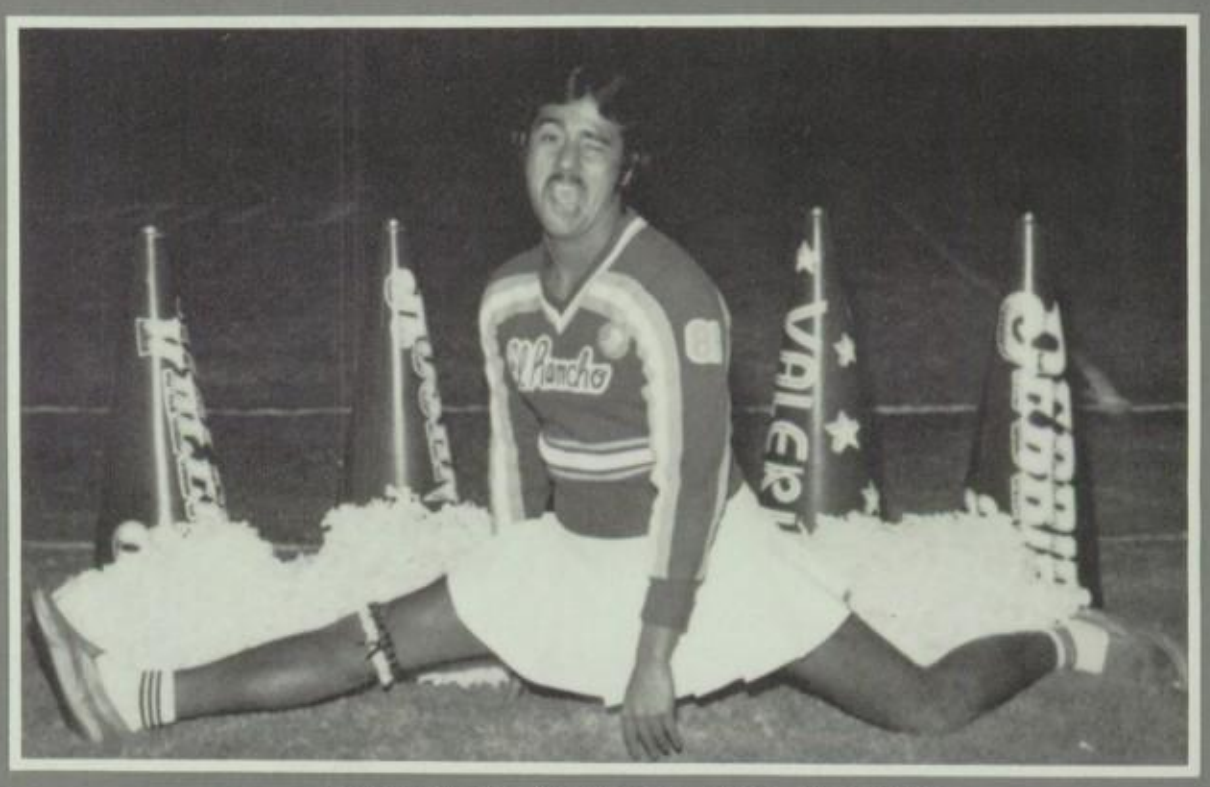
Seniors and Sophomores show their stuff.

Cheryl Sepulveda twirls her baton with style and ease.

Arcelia Velez and Annette Polanco shoot the breeze and the trees.



Banner Carrier Allison Martinez proudly waves her banner on to glory.



Head cheerleader Vince Cantu makes a split decision.

Rebecca Reyes takes time out from a hectic rehearsal.

To Gloria, my sweetheart friend I had for and going to have for a long time. I hope you have a ~~bitchen~~ bitchen summer + a fantastic future. Take care of yourself & God bless.

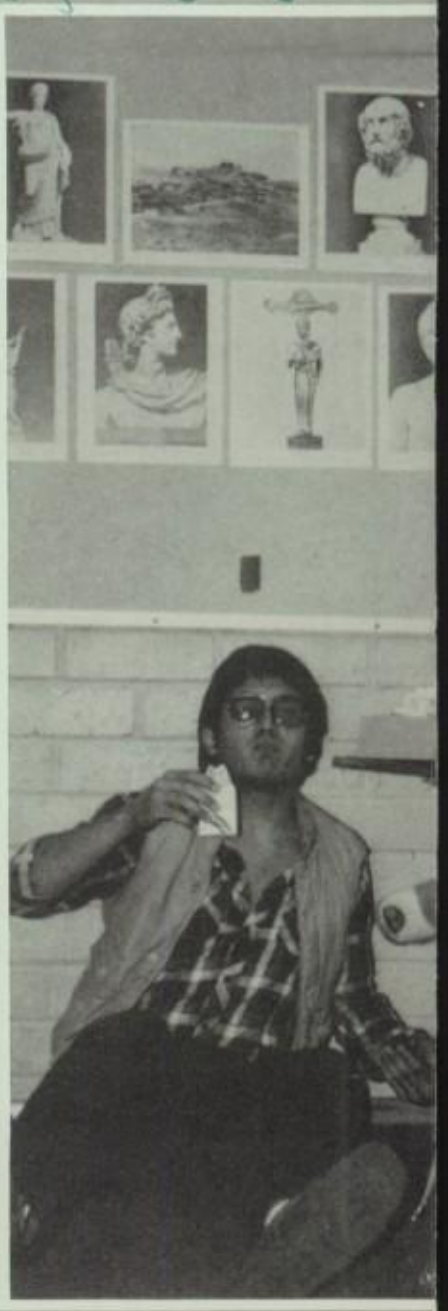
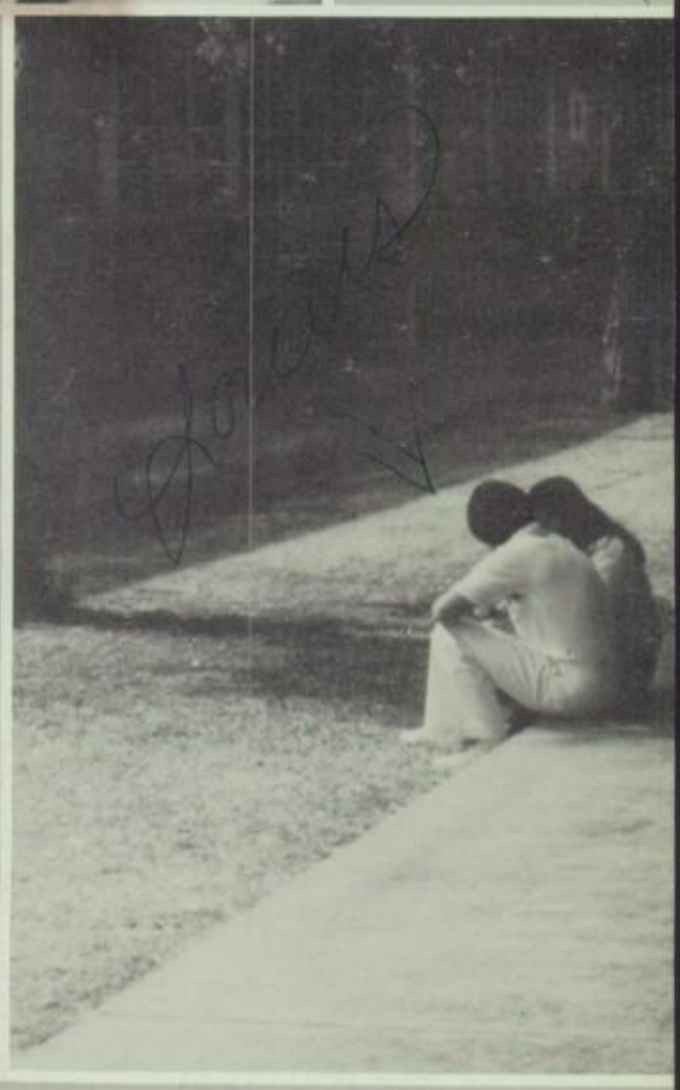
Sometimes We Had To Build Our Own Rainbows . . .





And It Wasn't Easy

But in the true tradition of the El Rancho Dons all 2200 of us succeeded. With the help of teachers and administrators we couldn't lose. Everyday everyone added his own special color to the rainbow. arithmetic. We made friends and enemies, we cheered and jeered, laughed and cried, we walked together and by ourselves and most importantly we gained experiences that turned the dazed and confused into confident, self-assure adults.

During the course of time, we participated in various activities that made El Rancho a great place to be. Just take a look at the years events. We crowned Corina Limas Homecoming Queen in a very magical way, in the midst of Powder Puff Mando Balderama bacame a king, and when the frost of winter came we rang a new Belle, Frances Porras. We freaked out on Fridays (especially the thirteenth). Some of us even walked around in a hypnotic state. But some of the best times were had in the quad just kicking back with friends. The Spring Activity got all the ranchers doing the two-step. The Junior-Senior Prom held at the California Plaza was big success despite the waxy buildup.

So time goes on and this writer takes up more space by thanking those people who have made this book possible. Endless thanks go to Miss Julie Ellis for molding our staff into something special. Another thank-you goes to my staff who never said die (they just did quietly). Finally, a lifetime of gratitude to Art and Angie for putting up with my ego. And of course to each and every Don for gracing all 280 pages of the 1980-81 Por el Ano.

Hey Gloria, (crazy chick)

Well the year is already over and its party time for summer were going to go crazy over the summer. Just hope not to crazy with some gack. I wish I would have met you in our Soph. year. But I'm glad I met you this semester. We've been through alot together like the beach that was pretty crazy going to Beckys to me throughs were great times I'll always remember. I hope you get what you want in life if you know what I mean. I'll always get what I want so you wont to worry about me. I just hope nothing gets in our way to ruin our friendship. Cuz your going to be in my wedding one day soon so be ready. Do you remeber in Mrs. Hahns class how she thought she was teaching us something but nobody was really even listening to her I mean

"To Gloria"
